

English

The Nowhere Emporium

This term we will be using the story 'The Nowhere Emporium' by Ross Mackenzie. From reading it, we will complete a variety of different activities including reading skills such as making predictions and writing activities which includes setting descriptions, a newspaper report, writing in character and creating an ending for a fantasy/mystery story.

Geography

Rivers and Coasts

Using maps to locate famous rivers.

Researching and writing about a major river.

Features of a river system.

Uses of rivers.

Coastal erosion.

Science

Earth and Beyond

Shadows Investigation.

Phases of the Moon.

Space travel.

The International Space Station.

DT

Landscapes

Colour mixing.

Using water-colours.

Sketching techniques.

Creating a painted landscape scene based on rivers.

Music

Learning songs to perform when we visit the Orchestra

Spanish

Names of animals

Describing animals' colours and sizes

Year 5 Term 4 2019

R.E.

If God is everywhere, why go to a place of worship?

Mathematics

Subtracting fractions and mixed numbers.

Multiplying fractions by a whole number.

Finding fractions of amounts.

Decimal place value and equivalence to fractions.

Understanding and using thousandths.

Daily Big Maths sessions, weekly Beat That challenges and arithmetic tests

P.E.

Gymnastics

Dance - Creating a Rivers dance

I.C.T

Creating and using a rivers database, including searching and sorting.

PSHE

Healthy Me (Jigsaw)

Thinking about ways to stay healthy and things that can affect people's health such as smoking and alcohol